Every Element of the Race Unites in Honor of Judge Robert H. Terrell in Reception and Banquet

BRUCE AND DANCY LAUD THE EMINENT JURIST

Able Speeches by Leaders in Thought and Constructive Action—A Gavel from the Home of Frederick Douglass—Judge Terrell Thanks all the Forces that Made the Race's Signal Triumph Possible—Griffin Sisters Have Become Producing Managers at the Majestic Theatre—Miscellaneous Notes.

(By R. W. Thompson.)

(Bureau of The Freeman, 1337 Wallach Place, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—The stellar event of the season was the reception and banquet last Friday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall, tendered in honor of Judge Robert Heberton Terrell, as mark of pride felt by the race in his appointment and confirmation as a member of the Municipal Bench of the District of Columbia.

At an early hour the spacious hall was filled with an audience that has not been equaled in brilliance, beauty and culture at the capital in many years, if ever. It was felt everywhere that the success of Judge Terrell in running the gauntlet of race prejudice in high and low places was a distinct victory for the Negro people throughout the land and that the signal triumph should be marked by an occasion that would stand out as a spontaneous expression of the gratification of the race and an extension of appreciation to the "powers" that made the victory possible.

The speeches, limited to three, were gems of oratory and clean-cut logic—dignified, comprehensive and sincere. Mr. Roscoe Conkling Bruce, assistant superintendent of the public schools, spoke on "The Local Aspect of Judge Terrell's Appointment," describing it as an inspiration to the colored youth of the land in this decidedly southern community—a rift in the cloud of race proscription and a proof that merit will win in the long run, although handicapped by a dusky skin. Mr. John C. Dancy, secretary of the Church Extension Board of the A. M. E. Zion connection and former Recorder of Deeds, was assigned the topic: "The National Significance of Judge Terrell's Appointment," and covered handsomely the vast amount of territory this theme embraced. He referred with great particularity to the national effect of such honorable recognition to a statesman of Judge Terrell's caliber at the nation's capital, where the example of breadth and civic liberality should be set for the entire country. He recited many instances of Judge Terrell's ability as a jurist, of his fine legal attainments and of his loyalty as a friend, both in his professional and personal capacity. Some interesting inside facts in the several fights of Judge Terrell for his various re-appointments were given, and how he won out, showed in Mr. Dancy's opinion, that as a judicial warrior, that the guest of honor was one of the most militant generals the country has ever seen. On the bench, Judge Terrell saw only evidence—he knew no color line as he balanced the scales of justice evenly. Mr. Dancy was at his best and his reminiscences of the great men of the race who had been the contemporaries of Judge Terrell and himself in public life and to whom they had looked for guidance and inspiration, were listened to with the closest attention.

Judge Terrell, in a masterly closing address, modestly analyzed the significance of the occasion and was grateful that Providence had chosen him as an humble instrument for the vindication of the great principle of equality of American citizens before the law. He saw hope ahead, despite the many discouraging situations that confront us at every turn. The struggle must go on and the race would be stronuger for being compelled to work out its own salvation than if its problems should be solved for it by others. He had tried to do his full duty, and he would strive even more earnestly in the future to be worthy of the high praise that had been given him in the past and present, and thus make the easier for others of the race to travel upward. He thanked President Wilson for his generosity, Attorney-General McReynolds for his impartial weighing of the claims of the race to recognition on the municipal bench, the Bar Association of the District and individual lawyers for their insistent support and the business men and private citizens of every class for their cordial interest and united demand for his retention.

At the close of his eloquent address, the Judge was presented with a monster bouquet of American Beauty roses, a token of esteem on the part of the citizens. The presentation was made by the Hon. W. H. Clifford, of Ohio. Following this, Mr. M. Grant Lucas, principal of the Bruce School, a former pupil of Judge Terrell, presented a gavel, beautifully carved and silver-mounted, on behalf of the boys of the public schools. The gavel the insignia of judicial authority, was made by a student of the Armstrong Manual Training School from cedar taken from a tree on the grounds of the old home of Frederick Douglass at Cedar Hill, Anacostia.

Lieut. Thomas H. R. Clarke acquitted himself with credit as master of ceremonies. Immediately after the speaking, the floor was cleared and a long and delightful program of modern dances began. Music was furnished by Wooding's Smart Set Orchestra. Luncheon was served ad lib throughout the evening and many good things were on the menu.

The managing committee was made up of Col. Arthur Brooks, chairman: W. H. Clifford, A. O. Stafford, Charles E. Hall and Thomas H. R. Clarke. Arthur Brooks, J. W. Clifford, Bismarck R. Pinchback and Henry W. Freeman constituted the floor committee. Nearly one hundred prominent representatives of the social, business, professional and official life of the capital were members of the reception committee, and all did their work well.

The race did itself proud in tendering this merited testimonial to the only colored judge on the American continent and the enthusiasm displayed indicates a healthy condition of the public mind—a forerunner to the unity that will bring success to the race in every arena of helpful activity.

THE NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

With the end of the Washington's Post's Holy Land contest but a few days away, Rev. M. W. Clair, pastor of Asbury M. E. church, looks like a winner. By the terms of the contest, the fifteen ministers receiving the largest number of votes are to be given four weeks of sightseeing in the Holy Land and all the region made notable by the Bible. Up to last Friday Dr. Clair had 375,000 votes and stood fourth in the field of fifteen. As suggested in these columns at the outset, all but two or three of the other candidates have practically retired from the race, and the citizens are rallying almost to a man to Dr. Clair. Because of this he has taken on all the earmarks of a winner.

JUDGE ROBERT H. TERRELL.

REV. DR. CHARLES C. BATES PASSES AWAY—A BRIEF REVIEW OF HIS LIFE—ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE MANUAL TRAINING AND DOMESTIC SCIENCE SCHOOL—FIGHTING SEGREGATION.

(Melville Perdue, 1219 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, Ky., Phone City 5038.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky. Special.

Last week witnessed the passing of another one of our prominent citizens and public servants in the person of the Rev. Dr. Charles C. Bates, who for thirty-five years was the pastor of the Lampton Street Baptist church. Dr. Bates was identified in every good work that tended toward the elevation of his people and the community and again the people of Louisville that death had robbed them of another one who was dear to all clases of people.

His work speaks for itself, and the history of his life need not be written for the world to know that he has lived. The building up of his church from a few scattered peoples to a large and united membership of 3,000; the many civic improvements that have been agitated and pushed by him; the many unfortunate for whom he has interceded and plead and in many instances used his own means to secure justice and mercy; all stand out against the pages of time in bold black type as a written history of his character and life. Indeed it has been said of him that he has more than once sat in the executive offices of the state and plead for a whole day and would not relinquish until he had accomplished his purpose. Beside this he has been the instigation of many persons entering into a christian life. Thousands were baptized by him into the christian faith.

He has served his denomination for a number of years in many capacities having been Moderator of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists for more than one term, a trustee of the State University at the time of his death and actively connected with the Ministers' and Deacons' Association of the city.

Rev. Bates was 66 years of age. He came to this city from Woodford county in 1879 to take charge of the Lampton Street Baptist church, which charge he held until his death, June 3, 1914.

The funeral services were held in the auditorium of the Lampton Street Baptist church and the eulogy was delivered by Rev. J. K. Polk of Midway, Ky. The services were attended by both prominent white men and ministers from all over the state. Interment was in the Louisville cemetery.

Th estate of the Rev. Bates has not as yet been wound up, but it is generally known that he was worth between thirty and fifty thousand dollars.

On last Friday the annual exhibit of the manual training and domestic science departments of the Central colored high school was held. Invitations were sent soliciting the presence of the parents and friends of the school to be present. The exhibit was very prettily arranged and reflected credit upon the pupils and the school as well for the high class of work that had been accomplished. To those who were connected with the school when these departments were first inaugurated this was indeed a very pleasant surprise and those who remember the feeble start and meager euipment with which those boys and girls first workd and then on last Friday saw the rapid strides in both equipment and quality of work were more than pleased and truly convinced that the colored youth is apprecxative of what may be done for him along educational lines and has the capacity for any kind of work that might be assigned to him.

On entering the building we first come to the mechanical drawing and wood-work departments, presided over by Messrs. Welch and Evans. Here we see first class drawings of all kinds executed by the young men of all classes of the school with great accurateness and neatness. Perhaps those that called forth much praise from a great number of the visitors were the globe valve by Kenneth Baker and architectural drawings by George Green. Others are worthy of mention, but time and space will not allow us to enter into a detailed description of the exhibit. All the work was commendable. Then in the woodwork department we see footstools, tables, desks, chairs, hall trees all finished and polished so as to make one think that he was in a first class furniture store and the work had been executed by skilled mechanics.

Upstairs one is taken off his feet so to speak and the salivary glands are made to hasten their secretion by the many table delicacies that were on exhibit. Here one might observe pies, canned fruits, breads, gelatines and cakes. The most attractive thing of this exhibit was the artistically arranged table following the yellow and green color scheme. What we need, some of the boys have said, is good cooks and fewer suffragettes. We think that our high schol girls are in a position to supply this demand.

Our usher then escorts us into the sewing department where we see all kinds of sewing too much for a man to undertake to tell about, for we know perhaps a little about it. 'Mention jes a few things, do I know I hadn't orter," for fear I might make a mistake. From the sewing books admitted to exhibit by the members of the freshman class to the fine hand embroidery and dresses and suits shown by the senior class the exhibit was a thing of grandeur and beauty. This department like the other three, had one thing of particular interst and this was the class quilt, made by the members of the graduating class. The color scheme was yellow and black and each young lady graduate had patched some with yellow background and their name in black and others with a black background with their name in yellow. This made a very pretty quilt and was the object of many pleasant comments by the many visitors. The domestic science department is presided over by Misses Lattimore, Peyton and Goodall.

The exhibit as a whole was perhaps the largest and best that it has been our pleasure to witness and shows the remarkable stride that has been taken by our schools under their present form of government.

Interest has again been aroused in the fight against the segregation law that was pasesd by the city council of this city some few weeks ago. It is understood that counsel has been employed who will take the case and fight it out in the courts for our people. A monster mass meeting has been called by the local N. A. A. G. P. This meeting will be held in Quinn Chapel Tuesday night, June 23d. At this meeting a definite course of procedure will be outlined and funds solicited to defray the expenses of the fight. It is to be hoped that our people will unite on this issue and as one man stand up not alone for their civic right, but for their natural rights that are given freely to all men by the God of the universe.

The Emmanuel Baptist Sunday school will observe its annual Parents' Day on next Sunday with appropriate exercises. The parents of all the children of the school are requested to be present. Invitation also has been sent to all friends and well wishes of Sunday school work throughout the city to be present. Sunday, June 14th, is the day on which these exercises will be held.

Announcement of the annual school picnic has been made. The picnic will be held at Cherokee park on the 13th of June. This picnic is a return to the jolly times of long ago. A few years back it was a deplorable thing that our school picnics were held in White City Park where our people went to spend their money making a few white people richer and getting little pleasure and comfort out of the day. We are pleased with the idea of the old fashioned basket picnic where we may roam in the wods and feast 'neath the shade of the trees like we used to do when the good old times were here.

It is with much regret that we learn that the family of the Rev. Dr. Clarke, pastor of the Quinn Chapel A. M. E. Z. church are to leave the city. Mrs. Clarke is interested in quite a number of city organizations and has been a great asset to the community. We understand that they are to live at their home in Wilberforce, Ohio. Whether the stay is permanent or not we do not know.

Dr. J. W. E. Bowen will address the second open meeting of the season of the Colored Branch Y. M. C. A. Sunday, June 14th. Dr. Bowen is noted for his excellency in oratory and an appreciative audience is expected to hear him.

The commencement of the normal school was held in Macauley's theater, Friday, June 12th, at 8 p. m. Eight young ladies received diplomas. A full account of the exercises and the list of graduates will appear in next week's issue. Also we will give an account of the Central high school's commencement which will be held at the same theater on the 18th of June.

The intellectual man and the mechanical man. His subjects were precise, interesting and very instructive all the way through. Mr. Murray certainly has the message to deliver to the Afro-American people. He gives direct cause and the remedy for that cause. CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—Rev. Smythe, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, is having great success as a pastor. No Sunday morning can one get a seat in his church unless they are there by 10:30 a. m. Not only is the church filled in a few minutes after that hour but the crowds are so large that overflow meetings are held in the basement. Dr. Smythe is doing a wonderful work in the city of Chicago. No pastor has ever filled the pulpit with more grace, dignity and honor and delivered better sermons than he. Everybody loves him and he is honored and admired by old and young and all denominations. He is thought of so well among the young people that they don't think they are married spiritually unless the Rev. Smythe "ties the knot." There is some talk of his name being presented at the next general conference for bishop and if that is so, he will have the hearty support of the Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Michigan delegations. Bethel is in a most prosperous condition.

The young nurse is now living happily and says "no more nursing for her, save her hubby."

Clifford Clark An Expert.

The city of Chicago is one place where the brain of man is constantly devising and inventing for the happiness and financial betterment of its people. In medicine, law, art, business, mechanics, this is witnessed daily. This is seen also in the tonsorial parlor, formerly called barber shop. There was a time when it was a common thing to enter a barber shop and see a man shaved with the same water, towel and razor that had been used the entire day on the faces of others. No attention was paid to the lather, towel, water or grease used on his face—every skin was treated the same with no desire only to get the "thin dime." But things began to change, and thanks to the man or men who have been instrumental in making the old barber shop a tonsorial parlor. Seemingly the hand of progress touched the brain of the barber and today there is no place that a man has a greater desire to go to than a first-class, up-to-date parlor, where men are made to feel that they are newly born. Such a man who is able to do that is Mr. Clifford Clark, foreman of the shop at 3111 State street. There is no doubt that Mr. Goins has the finest shop in the West. There is every convenience possible. You start in with a bath, hair-cut, shave with sanitary towels, hot and cold water, shampoo, massage and manicure. All this can be done in little over an hour. The man that has the reputation to be the fastest, the neatest and the cleverest with the scissors and the razor is Mr. Clifford Clark. When Dr. Booker T. Washington passed through the city several months ago he took Mr. Clark's chair and when he had finished the "wiard" Mr. Washington said: "Truly, Mr. Lewis, he is a powerful fine barber." What Mr. Washington has said of Mr. Clark, others are daily saying. If you live in Chicago, or if you are soon to be a visitor, or if you are a railroad man or engaged in any walk of life that necessitates you looking neat and clean about the face and head, just drop in at 3111 and call for "Cliff" and we guarantee he will serve you to a "queen's taste." The two manicurists are Misses Enery and Shadd.

Annual Banquet.

The Dental Society of Chicago gave their annual banquet on Thursday evening, June 4, at the Carter Villa. This is the second social function of a large nature that the club has given since its organization and it has proved to be fruitful in many respects. Dr. Asa Barnes, president, and Dr. Harry Garnes, secretary, were the cause of the affair being so very successful and participated in by so many able and brilliant leaders. An eight course dinner was served, after which Dr. Barnes, in a neat speech, introduced Dr. Theodore Mozee, who was the speaker of the evening. Very thoughtful, inspiring and helpful addresses were delivered by Dr. Charles E. Bentley, Dr. George C. Hall and Hon. Edward H. Morris. Among the visitors were Dr. H. A. Turner, who spoke for the Medical Association, Dr. U. G. Failey, Dr. L. Blanchet, Dr. Harris, Dr. Baxter, Dr. Young, Dr. B. A. Jordan, Dr. C. S. Dickerson. The members are Doctors Asa Barnes, W. T. Jefferson, J. H. Plummer, H. Garnes, J. A. Wright, A. C. Barnes, A. C. Johnson, C. L. Lewis, Theo Mozee, A. E. Mercer, Clifton Nichol, W. A. Richardson and N. A. Thorne.

Dr. J. H. Frank Here.

One of the leading Baptist ministers of the country paid the city a visit last week. It was the Rev. John H. Frank, pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist church, Louisville, Ky. Dr. Frank was here on a purely business mission. He met quite a number of his friends, who were glad to welcome him to the Windy City. It is being generally known now that the many friends of the Rev. Frank are anxious to have him consent to be elected president of the National Baptist Convention. It is reported here that his name is being favorably mentioned in all parts of the country and one minister says that the Rev. E. C. Morris is going to resign in Rev. Frank's favor, that he has had the "plum" long enough. Dr. Frank is a graduate of the Louisville National Medical College and is a writer of ability and one of the most widely known ministers in the country.

Captain Rufus Costume From the East.

The costume to be worn by Miss Elizabeth Wallace, who takes the leading part in "Captain Rufus" now playing at the Pekin Theater, was made in New York and especially designed by a Parisian modiste. Miss Wallace is a Filipino girl and all of her costumes are of the richest material from that country. Her song, "Amazon Land," is expected to be the song hit of the show. The other big hits of this famous musical military comedy are: "My Madeline," by Leon Crosby and chorus; "You Ain't Said Nothing Yet," by Andrew Tribble; "Monkey and the Snake," by petite Mamie Carter; "Big Chief," by Jack Smith; "Just for the Night," Rosie Garden; the "Witch Number," opening chorus, second act; "Sword and the Flag" by Sidney Kirkpatrick, phenomenal baritone singer; "Martial Airs," "The Rose and the Bud," by George Hall; Sextette by Misses Lockett, Brown, ohnson, Messrs. De Acklen, Brown and Frazier, chorus, "Back to Montreal." With a musical comedy having a love story and a plot with ten big stars in the cast, new scenery and costumes; theatrical patrons thirsty for something to see aside from cheap white vaudeville all the time, "Captain Rufus" will no doube be one of the biggest hits that has been seen in Chicago for a number of years. Mr. Jerry Mills has had the members of the company down at hard work for the past two weeks and with just two nights to pass over, we venture to say that by Saturday all Chicago will wake up and claim it was the "best ever." The proprietor of the Pekin is equally as proud of the venture, as well as Mr. Mills and Anderson and all three predict a great success for "Captain Rufus." A box party awaits Mr. Elwood Knox any time he arrives in Chicago. It is likely that the show will have a run all the summer and on the night of July 5, a box party will be given Miss Mable Smith, of the Freeman, who expects to be home July 4. There will be a matinee Sunday afternoon. In the cast are Charles Moore, Bessie Tribble, Lonnie Crosby, Mayme Carter, Jerry Mills, Lizzie Wallace, Jack Smith, Charles Liverpool, Leroy Brown, W. Rogers Jones, Sidney Kirkpatrick, George Hall, Wm. De Acklen, Effie Fletcher Andrew Tribble and a chorus of fifty voices. As we go to press, there is a dress rehearsal under the direction of Jerry Mills, who is staging the production, and Alfred Anderson, who wrote the production. Beecher Todd is musical director.

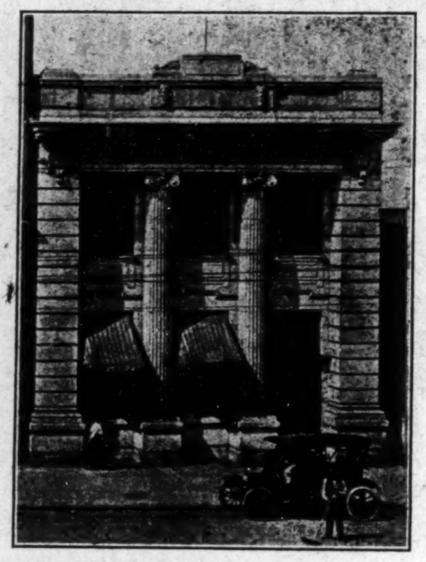
Proposition



THREE OF OUR PROMISING YOUNG BUSINESS MEN WHOSE RELIABLITY, INTEGRITY AND PROGRESSIVE SPIRIT IS UNQESTIONED CLUBBED TOGETHER TO ERECT FOR THEMSELVES AN OFFICE BUILDING THAT WOULD BE IN KEEPING WITH THEIR STANDING AND ADJACENT BUILDINGS IN THE BUSINESS DISTRICT. UPON GOING OVER THEIR FINANCES AND AFTER HAVING SEVERAL CONVERSATIONS WITH VARIOUS FINANCIAL MEN IN THE CITY THEY FOUND IT WAS NOT CONVENIENT WITHOUT PAYING EXORBITANT INTEREST FOR THEM TO FINANCE PERSONALLY MORE THAN 70 PER CENT. OF THE TOTAL VALUE OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING. THE RESULT WAS THEY HAD TWO ALTERNATIVES FROM WHICH TO SECURE THE ADDITIONAL 30 PER CENT. THE FIRST AND A VERY GOOD ONE FOR THEMSELVES WAS TO INCORPORATE A COMPANY AND ISSUE BONDS AT 7 OR 8 PER CENT. INTEREST FOR THE REQUIRED AMOUNT. HOWEVER, OWING TO THE UNIVERSAL MONEY STRINGENCY THEY REALIZED THAT FOR A NEW COMPANY IT WOULD REQUIRE CONSIDERABLE TIME BEFORE THE BONDS WERE ALL SOLD. THEREFORE, THEY ACCEPTED THE OTHER ALTERNATIVE WHICH FOR THE PUBLIC IS UNDOUBTEDLY THE MOST PROFITABLE AND ALSO AN OPPORTUNITY THAT FOR A PERFECTLY LEGITIMATE, SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT SHOWING 24 PER CENT. PROFIT AT THE START IS SELDOM OFFERED. THAT IS TO INCORPORATE A COMPANY AND SELL AT $1 A SHARE SUFFICIENT SHARES TO ENABLE THEM TO PROCEED WITH THEIR BUILDING. THEREFORE WE HAVE INCORPORATED THE TURNER BUILDING, LIMITED.

District

THE FACT THAT OUR PROPOSITION IS CENTERED IN THE CITY OF EDMONTON, PROVINCE OF ALBERTA, CANADA, NEEDS NO FURTHER ASSURANCE AS TO THE ULTIMATE VALUE OF OUR PROPOSITION. EDMONTON TO-DAY IS THE FASTEST GROWING CITY ON THE CONTINENT. IS MODERN IN EVERY RESPECT. ALL ITS UTILITIES ARE OWNED BY THE CITY. IT HAS NOW A POPULATION OF 75,000 AND IS INCREASING AT THE RATE OF 15,000 A YEAR. THE COMPANY'S PROPERTY IS SITUATE ON KINISTINO AVENUE, IN THE BUSINESS DISTRICT AND ONLY FIVE BLOCKS FROM THE POSTOFFICE, BEING LOT 28, BLOCK 13, RIVER LOT 12 AND 14. THE PROPERTY IS NOW WORTH $10,000 AND WILL IN THE COURSE OF A FEW YEARS UNDOUBTEDLY BE WORTH TWICE THE AMOUNT.

Responsibility

THE TURNER BUILDING, LIMITED, IS CAPITALIZED AT $25,000, $17,500 OF WHICH HAS BEEN ARRANGED LOCALLY WITH THE OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY WHO ARE: JAMES WALKER TURNER, SECRETARY DOUGLAS CLUB, PRESIDENT; LELAND SILAS JONES, MERCHANT TAILOR, SECRETARY; EDWARD WILLIAM CHILES, BROKER, TREASURER, AND CLIFFORD C. MITCHELL, INVESTMENT BROKER, FISCAL AGENT. $7,500, THE REMAINING AMOUNT WE ARE NOW ISSUING AT $1 PER SHARE IN AS MANY SHARES. ACCORDING TO THE LAWS OF ALBERTA ALL SHAREHOLDERS IN A LIMITED COMPANY ASSUME NO FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OR OBLIGATION OTHER THAN THE UNPAID AMOUNT ON THEIR STOCK. THEREFORE THE PURCHASERS OF THE 7,500 SHARES ARE ASSUMING NO ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATION WHATEVER AS THEIR SHARES WILL BE FULLY PAID UP UPON SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT. FURTHERMORE, THE SHARES NOW BEING OFFERED FOR SUBSCRIPTION REPRESENT ONLY 30 PER CENT. OF THE CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY, WHICH OBVIOUSLY SHOWS THE STRENGTH OF THE COMPANY AND REDUCES ANY POSSIBLE SPECULATIVE FEATURE TO A MINIMUM.

Profits

WE HAVE ARRANGED WITH EDWARD WILLIAM CHILES, DIRECTOR OF THE COMPANY, TO LEASE THE BUILDING FOR A PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS AT A YEARLY RENTAL THAT, AFTER ALL OVERHEAD EXPENSES ARE PAID AND ALLOWING $500 FOR ANY POSSIBLE EMERGENCIES, WILL SHOW A CLEAR PROFIT OF 24 PER CENT. IT IS QUITE OBVIOUS THAT AS THESE PROFITS ARE DECLARED FROM TIME TO TIME IT WILL AUTOMATICALLY INCREASE THE VALUE OF STOCK IN PROPORTION.

Guarantee

AS THE MONIES ARE RECEIVED THEY WILL BE DEPOSITED IN THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA AND WILL BE WITHDRAWN FOR NO OTHER PURPOSE THAN CONSTRUCTION OF THE BUILDING. THE OFFICERS OF THE TURNER BUILDING, LIMITED, PERSONALLY GUARANTEE THAT IF THE AMOUNT OFFERED FOR SUBSCRIPTION IS NOT SUBSCRIBED WITHIN SIXTY DAYS TO RETURN IN FULL ALL MONIES RECEIVED WITH INTEREST AT FIVE PER CENT.

No Person can afford to let this offer slip by without purchasing at least a few shares. This is not a speculation, but an absolute, legitimate, safe and profitable investment showing a net profit of 24 per cent. to begin with

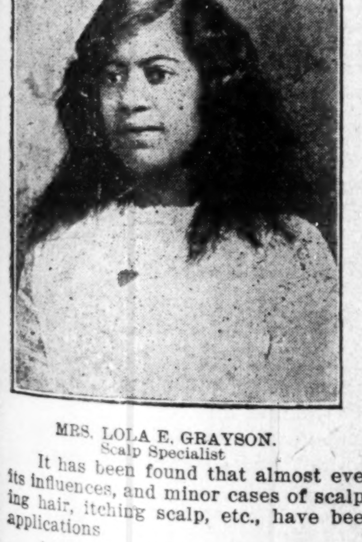
"GLOSS-O"

A Marvelous Discovery which Grows Hair in Three Months and Positively Keeps the Hair Straight

Everybody will be pleased to learn that the alarming increase of baldness has been checked at last by the discovery of a remarkable compound which actually grows hair. No longer need the prospects of having to wear a wig distress men and women who are rapidly becoming bald, or who have already lost most of their hair.



MRS. LOLA E. GRAYSON.
Scalp Specialist

"GLOSS-O"—The name given to this wonderful compound—has been tested in every way, and found that it will actually cover the human head with hair, providing that hair roots have not been destroyed, in three months. Its properties are so remarkable that not only does it grow hair, but also improves the quality of existing hair, if it is gray or fading it will frequently restore it to its natural color within two or three months.

No stronger argument can be used in its favor, than people who have tried almost every known thing for promoting hair growth, such as tonics, pomades, etc., with no tangible results, have found that "Gloss-O" only, will do what other things are said to do—grow hair.

Since its discovery, a little over four years ago, it has taken the world by storm, and thousands of men and women are now living proofs of its efficacy.

It has been found that almost every known hair trouble will succumb to its influences, and minor cases of scalp or hair diseases, such as dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, etc., have been completely cured with two or three applications

As a hair dressing "GLOSS-O" is undoubtedly unexcelled. It makes the hair soft and glossy, with a tendency to straighten, and for pressing the hair it has no equal. Many of those who have used "GLOSS-O" report most astonishing results.

CALLERS.

Last night came Fear
  To call, with Doubt,
I summoned Cheer,
And then and there
  We kicked them out;
And as they sped
  Heels over head
Amid the laughter and the din,
Two other guests came walking in—
Courage and Hope—and then we four
Tackled the wolf outside my door,
And changed his visage so that he
  Resembled Opportunity,
The which I seized, so that today
To fortune's goal I'm on the way!

Two of the most notable addresses delivered at the recent General Conference of the C. M. E. church at St. Louis were the fraternal message from the A. M. E. Zion church by Financial Secretary J. S. These orations set the pace for the conference and have been published in full in the official records of that historic body. Dr. Jackson's message was an exhaustive resume of the progress of Negro Methodism in this country and the relations of the denominations to one another. Both of the addresses are valuable contributions to the literature of the day.

The North Carolina Mutual and Provident Association is a corporation that appeals to the pride and progressive spirit of the race. The company got burnt out a few weeks ago at Durham, N. C. Did they stop business and bewail their losses? Did they suspend the payment of benefits and "plead the baby act"? Did they levy special assessments to keep them on the insurance map? Not a bit of it. While the flames yet did roar, the cool-headed Merrick, Spaulding and Moore, pencil and pad in hand, figured the cost of rebuilding and within twenty-four hours the contract for a thorough remodeling of the main building had been let and the financial transactions of the company never halted for a second. The building is now practically completed and the N. C. Mutual and Provident, for its demonstration of solidity in time of stress, is stronger than ever in the confidence of the masses. It has the brand of grit that wins.

Dr. C. V. Roman, whose Caesar-like surname suggests the nobility that is his, put in a strenuous month of May. Besides attending to his big practice and getting up the thinking department of the Journal of the National Medical Association, the erudite medico was a conspicuous figure in the recent session of the Southern Sociological Congress at Memphis, Tenn., and spoke on the subject: "Racial Interdependence in Maintaining Public Health." The 10th of May found him filling an engagement at Paris, Tenn., where he addressed the Odd Fellows and led their annual Thanksgiving celebration. On the 18th he spoke at Clark University, Atlanta, Ga., to the Southern Students' Conference, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., taking for his theme "The Church in Relation to Growing Race Pride." On the 29th, Dr. Roman delivered the commencement address for the High School of Huntington, W. Va., and closed his lively itinerary by giving lessons on life and living at the commencement exercises of Campbell Colege, Jackson, Miss., where our good friend, Former Register W. T. Vernon, holds forth as president. Dr. Roman is a bubbling spring in giving out valuable information and every occasion mentioned was made brilliant by his illuminating lectures and magnetic personality.

Special to The Freeman.

Mr. A. B. Nores was in Chicago Monday. He will leave in a short while for Long Island.

Hello, look who is all smiles. It can't be true. Out of sight, out of mind. Miss Daisy Ganaway will direct the unfinished musical contest Monday evening.

Mrs. C. Sloan and Miss Alice Baxter spent Friday in Chicago visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. J. Reed has been confined to his bed several days. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. C. Gray has returned from Kansas, where she was called to the bedside of her father, who is greatly improved.

Mrs. Gertrude Anderson left Saturday night for Colorado Springs, to be gone indefinitely. We wish her much success in her new surroundings. She was a subscriber of The Freeman.

Rev. Dr. Gray, of Chicago, preached a forceful sermon at the First Baptist church Sunday evening to an overflowing audience. His text, Isaiah 28-16; his theme was "Christ is the foundation."

Miss Daisy Ganaway finished the unfinished musical contest Monday evening, June 1st. There was several out of town people in attendance. Chicago has taken an active part. As the city violinist did not appear on account of illness, Mr. Earl Blevins was awarded the prize. Mr. C. Sloan and others put on the anvil chorus, which is something new. It would do any one good to hear it. Some booking agent should have it on the road.

LAUREL, MISS.

(By C. H. Moses, Box 615.)

Special to THE FREEMAN.

Miss Nealy Span, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Span, of Alabama, was united to Mr. Charlie Amos in wedlock. We pray that they may live long and be happy, also be obedient to God's command.-----The annual sermon of the G. B. A.'s was preached at Cooke's Chapel A. M. E. Z. church, with a good number of their members present, also a host of friends. The present P. C. took for a text, Heb. 11:10. Subject, "Seek for a better home." The order exercises were grand, also the sermon, but the pews were not in order, for dust, dust.-----Second Baptist church is being congratulated by many for their wise choice of newly elected pastor in the person of Rev. Brown, of Meridian, who preached one of the greatest sermons at the said church the night of the 31st of May, to an over crowded house and a goodly number outside. He has only been there a short time, also he is in a battle, as a mighty hero. We see the sign now, the battle is the Lord's. He preached from Josh. 24:14, 15, and 16. He beautifully instructed the sinners that there was nothing to hinder them from being saved except self.-----Mrs. Nezzie Nickson is very sick and has been for seven days. We hope in our next issue we can report her recovery. Sadness will turn to joy for her many friends and acquaintances.-----Mrs. Rose Littlepage, who is well known by the leading citizens, has been ill and now confined to her bed. Our prayers are that the comforter will continue with her and she be up again soon.-----Mrs. Keown, who stops in the Halbert Quarter House No. 4, keeps very puny. Newly married, seemingly, and she takes it very hard. We hope our beloved sister will continue the path with joy, as others have traveled. It is better farther on.-----Drs. Waters and Brown are very busy now. A good deal of sickness is on hand. Smallpox and mumps are the leading diseases to my knowledge, also Mr. Anderson, undertaker is very busy, too, because deaths are occurring regularly.-----Mrs. E. A. Currie is a Freeman reader. She is very sick, but we hope for her a speedy recovery.-----Mrs. Cleo Williams, of Newton, has been in this city seven months. She returned from a seven days' trip to her native place, and reports a joyous trip in vegetable farm. She spoke of the cabbage, etc., how she crated them, etc. She is surely the picture of health. The Italian who stole out Mona Lisa from the art gallery of Paris, France, says that he did it because it was taken from his country years ago. Is he a good patriot?

Mayor Bell intimates that the saloons just broke out on Memorial Day all at once. Naturally got bad owing to the day and to the big event. Well, we guess we'll have to take his word for it.

Having plenty rain which insures us the better things of the garden—green corn, melons, sweet potatoes and the rest of the berries. The most pessimistic ought to conclude that life is worth living right along through here.

They tell the mayor that he will be restored to favor if he will punish the Memorial Day saloon offenders. He would have as much trouble in doing so as "Bring me the stone that David slew Goliath with," the new song. The preaching brethren insist that Mr. Bell fell off his horse that day, the day of the big show, the automobile race. Perhaps it would be just as well for the ministers to tell him to "go in peace, and sin no more."

The colored people of Louisville, Ky., are fighting the segregation business. It is right because the thing itself is a civil iniquity. But they had better make it a two-edged sword affair. They should bear in mind that such things are not without reason. We do not insist that any reason is justifiable, but it is an excuse. Reduce the possibility of the excuse and such things will be fought down with greater success. When white men are unanimously against us we had best do some retrospection.

Former President William H. Taft was in the city a short while this week. He was on his way to New Harmony, Ind., where he attended the centennial celebration of that community in company with former Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks. He made an interesting speech, showing that he was well acquainted with the history of that community of people whose influence for good is widespread. Mr. Taft had a pleasant stay in Indianapolis, although brief. He said that he was in love with his work as professor of law at Yale. He said that he had to study hard to keep in front of the boys. We imagine a chorus of amens from the pedagogical fraternity generally.

When referring to ex-Congressman Geo. W. Murray, last week, we said that he was one of the only two living Negroes that had been members of the national legislature. It was a mistake. Smalls, Miller, Lynch, Cheatham, White and O'Hara are all living. And if they are as hardy, healthy appearing as Mr. Murray, they have yet a considerable lease on life. Mr. Murray is a fine specimen of the pure Negro, "black, but comely." He stands about six feet and straight as an Indian. He has reached his three score at least, but wears his years lightly. He is of good speech, emphatic and enthused with his subject. A light smile lights up his face at frequent intervals, lending a grace and charm to his conversation. As a whole he is a blend of the older Negro and the new, making for a very interesting study.

We say again that if the Mexican factions are earnestly interested in the best for their country they will let the Niagara Peace Conference decide for them. It is not ours to dictate to them, nor our country. But they profess to be patriots, all of them. Humanity declares against men who would see their comrades butchered to advance their interests, personally. President Wilson takes a broad humane view of the situation, being interested in that country's welfare and the peace of the occident where our country is of such large influence. Any head of our nation, be it Mr. Wilson or any one else, we think, feels a sense of responsibility for the peace of the two continents. In fact, the true patriot of the United States feels very much the same way, whether he is obscure or moves in the greater circles of men. We are proud of our country's pre-eminence and its somewhat guardianship of the western hemisphere. It makes for peculiar interest in all the quarrels and wrangles of the sister nations. We hold that it is disinterested further than the evolving of the best for the particular nations and for the nations as a whole.

The sweet girl graduate and the interesting boy will now have opportunity to do real life after having done the school rooms. Of course some will keep right on, going to higher institutions, taking on more knowledge. The greater number, however, have quit the schools for good. One shudders to think of the possibilities of their future, when they are bumping the bumps of life. For after all life is most nearly that. There are long intervals between, sometimes, true enough, but the bumps are scheduled, and in due time, will meet the "candidates" for life's experiences most "cheerfully." Perhaps it is not well to spread gloomy discouragement before those who are walking anew. And yet it is equally wrong to insist that life is roseate hued from beginning to end. Some philosopher advanced the idea that it would be well to suffer a little each day, take on pain, physical or spiritual, so as to be prepared for those supreme moments when pain and trouble descend as an avalanche. Others say never trouble trouble until trouble troubles you. This is that other extreme. We should be prepared, forewarned, to some extent for our probable future.

Many of our own race will, with regrets, read of the retiring of Miss Nebraska Cropsey as one of the management of the public schools of Indianapolis. The colored pupils of our schools ,as the whites ones, are scattered all over this country; they are also in foreign lands. Most of them coming to the schools as little tots, found Miss Cropsey, and when they were ushered into the great outer life they left her there. Their children and children's children had a similiar experience. We learned to think of her as fixed, an unmovable part of the system as the school houses are. And as Tennyson's Brook, some might come and some might go, but she went on forever. Time waits for no man; but it seemed to wait for her, to minister especially unto her, persevering her, prolonging her life that the work be done that she was so well prepared to do. The citizens of Indianapolis owe much to her for tireless effort in making the schools of this city of the best. Other cities and countries owe much to her. Their representatives pilgrimaged here to set at the feet of Gamaliel, as it were. They returned to their homes, and in a manner, blessed in that they came here.

WASTED EFFORTS.

In his address to the graduating class of Columbia university President Nicholas Murray Butler said:

"Probably the greatest waste recorded anywhere in human history is that which results from the attempt to do over again that which has once been done and found disappointing or harmful. If the study of history were more real and more vital than it is ordinarily made, and if it showed ideas, tendencies, and institutions in their unfolding and orderly development, and if the lessons of history so studied were really learned and harkened to, the world would be saved an almost infinite amount of loss, of suffering, and of discouragement."

We might apply the above to ex-Congressman Murray, who in his scheme of Negro race redemption plan, holds that the past effort was all wrong. He is satisfied that no satisfactory condition can arise from the false premises. He says that we are through with legal, physical and perhaps intellectual slavery, but spiritual slavery remains. He would throw down our teachings and strivings of the past along the lines of the spiritual. He would substitute new ideas, theorems or what not, in the demonstration of the wasted past. He would remake us—destroy and build anew from foundation to turret stone. O yes, he has something to offer, but he will have to accept some compromises. The point, however, was in the elucidation of wasted effort.

THE NEW WAY OF MAKING PROGRESS.

Ex-Congressman Geo. W. Murray spoke at the Y. M. C. A. Monday and Wednesday evenings of this week. He i sinterested in the uplift of his people, and in the effort he has studied the race question from every viewpoint. He has it that he has made some discoveries, or, at least, found the remedy for correcting some ills endured.

He contends that the race is yet enslaved, spiritually enslaved, and that until the new emancipation comes headway will not be rapid, if at all. However, this is an old truth, or rather an old assertion but which fits well in what Mr. Murray would have it, the "new philosophy." He would have the race strive for Negro ideals, cherish them, rather than the ideals of the white man. This would be retroactive, so to speak, influencing the whole race in the right direction, he maintains.

In his scheme of reformation the speaker hopes to destroy the ideals set up by physical slavery before making the effort to take on the latter-day civilization at its fullest. He calls this the destructive phase. He says that the training suiting the slave period must be eliminated. It is not eliminated, he thinks, in spite of our present surroundings. He then suggests reconstruction and finally a constructive phase, when all the false situations and nations will have passed away.

The ex-Congressman has worked out what may be called a pretty theory, and well fitted for a people who are well in hand of those fitted to deal out the instructions. If we were experimental communities, where each member was bent on self-improvement, having in view the improvement of the whole, his system would be wholly practicable, and with assurance from the very beginning as to the end. As it is he will find it difficult to set aside the ideals set up by the white people in whatever direction. The race is not well in hand, nor will it ever be, nor, perhaps is it desirable. For, after all, there has been efficacy in the white man's ideals. Of course one blushes, often, to see our own race set aside by the race and thus consciously and unconsciously supporting the white man's ideals wholly. But as to the profit and loss in the transactions the race is on the profit side. Humanity says that the Negroes should have respect for Negroes. That many do not have this respect makes room for Mr. Murray's philosophy, the foundation stone being, that a race that has no respect for itself can not expect the respect of other races.

So the speaker's words are not without possible good. But as said before, he presents no new thing, nor anything not thought or said before. He has simply arrayed his thoughts systematically in opposition to those deeply imbedded hurting things, and which do serve to make vast the distance and differences between the races. It would not do to take all on of what he suggests for that would arrest the progress of the race, which should strive for the utmost. The white people would not care to see us evolving too much as a peculiar people for this would make our civil doom sure and certain. If we were alone, as said before, in communities, we would be foolish to surrender our ideals altogether for the purpose of taking on those of other peoples. And yet we should do that very thing in part under any circumstances. The Japanese, for instance, are taking on European culture, also the Chinese; yet in the main they cling to their own ideals. What they borrow and incorporate is for the national betterment. Perhaps if we should act somewhat on this line much of Mr. Murray's philosophy would be answered in the affirmative and the race in the meanwhile would be bettered.

Three West Baden Sprudel Players "Desert."

(By Ben Knox)

Mr. Rice, who owns the Rice Hotel in West Baden, and one of our leading business men, is also manager of the famous West Baden Sprudels baseball team. He is considerably wrought up over the treatment he claims he received from three of his players, Bringo, Bingham and Thornton. He was booked to play the Shamrocks, a strong semi-pro white team in Cincinnati. The three players mentioned above were approached by a white manager to play with them. Mr. Rice asked them what they intended to do, and they all spoke in his favor, until Saturday, the last day, they decided to go with the white manager, leaving Mr. Rice in a very bad hole. Mr. Rice was very sorry, naturally, and didn't mince words in telling them what he thought of them. He claims to have held them up all winter and advanced them $40 apiece and that was his reward. But Mr. Rice was equal to the occasion and quickly replaced them by getting better players, and the colored fans were well satisfied when his team gave the white boys a good trimming.

Manager Tom Ellis is very proud of the game his boys, the Eighth Ward Centrals, put up Sunday at California, where they defeated the undefeated Walnut Hill Tigers, in a hotly contested game, replete with fast and sensational fielding and a pitcher's duel between the veteran Orville Lee and Dudley Todd. Score, 5 to 4. O Lee and Pulley were the Central's battery, and Todd and C. Lewis for the Tigers. The Tigers have open date for the 21st and would like to be booked out of town. Address Mr. Tom Ellis, 120 E. Front street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Cincinnati Stars were defeated Sunday, having a bad first inning, in which they made four costly errors.

Lads From the Springs Easily Beat Cincinnati Shamrocks—Miller and Hockner Do Dirty Work.

CINCINNATI, O.—The West Baden Sprudels walloped the Cincinnati Shamrocks last Sunday at League Park by the score of 13 to 2. Loose fielding allowed the Sprudels to score their first three runs. The Irish lads started off well in the lead, but were soon overcome by the boys from the springs.

The Sprudels got to Homelle in the eighth and pounded his curves all over the lot, Kimbro and McMurray getting triples, while Hockner and Miller poled the pill to left field for home runs. Fisher relieved the blond twirler and held the dark-skinned athletes pretty well. Stringbeans Williams pitched good ball for the Sprudels, and outside of the third inning, when the Shamrocks scored two runs on Homelle's base on balls, Magnus' triple and Golden's single, he was invincible. Magnus played a star game at second, both in the field and at the bat. Next Saturday and Sunday the Cubans play the Shamrocks at League Park. The score:

CAPITAL CITY LEAGUE DOPE.

Another Big Day at Athletic Park Monday.

(By W. H. S.)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 9.—(Special)—All games in the Capital City League were postponed last week, the clubs preparing for another big gala day at Athletic Park, Monday, the 15th. These games are always looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the fans of the city. First, a double header is offered for the small price of 25 cents. And, secondly, the management has adopted the custom of admitting ladies free when accompanied by a gentleman with a paid ticket. Large crowds attended the last games and a much larger host is expected on this occasion. Four popular clubs will participate in the fray—The Swifts will play the Y. M. C. A., and the Black Sox the A. M. E. These clubs are popular and have a large following.

The Black Sox, just a half game behind the leaders, will struggle to defeat the A. M. E. club in an effort to stay on the heels of the Athletics. The Y. M. C. A. will endeavor to cinch their third place position. So the games promise to be hotly contested.

Much good by way of elevating the sport in this city has been accomplished by this colored association of baseball clubs and baseball among the colored people is no longer a dead note, but rather a real live subject. The best people of the city support the organization and every public appeal meets with hearty co-operation. Many white fans attend the games at the Southern League park, where the clubs play every Monday when the white club is absent.

To the officers of the league much credit is due for the permanence and popularity of the game in this city. The president, Prof. H. A. Cameron, is an authority on the game, a zealous exponent of clean sport and a straightforward officer. The vice-president, Mr. E. H. Lee, is a hard worker, and having been for a long time connected with the Dixie Sporting Goods Company, has the benefit of experience gained and enthusiasm engendered. Mr. Fred J. Ewing, a popular and efficient young man, is the secretary, while Mr. D. A. Hart, editor of the Nashville Globe, is treasurer. To the untiring efforts of these officers the success of the league is due. Plans are on foot to secure and build in the western section of the city a park where the games and contests of the organization may be pulled off—a park for Negroes—the thing needed by every colored community of any size.

Particular Attention may be given to the following subject, since there are hundreds of thousands using the Eureka Comb throughout the United States and Isles. They give the best of satisfaction as to our recommend, straightening the hair beautifully with one stroke, and as assistance in causing rapid growth. Evidences coming to us from every source, of which is pleasing, that the Eureka Comb performs precisely as advertised.
No better comb on the market for purposes as we have been advised that other combs are toys, when it comes to benefits and effectual influences when used as to directions, for which every comb placed goes with it instructions how to use and for what purposes. Wherever introduced the Eureka is preferable. Merchants and agents are successful when they are placed conveniently in quantities for the public.
They are usually sold for $1.50 (one dollar and fifty cents) each complete. The only thing is to be careful in the purchase, as there is no other comb that will answer the purposes so well as the Eureka. We wholesale the Eureka Comb, being the manufacturers and promoters, and are the only wholesalers of this special device; if there are others we would be pleased to be informed.

E NEW CROWN GARDEN THEATRE

Owsley and Gaillard, Mgrs.

e Crown Garden presents a good in- ng bill this week. A pair of Tan- ancers, white, is a feature; Morton & n, Sam Evans, ventriloquist, the esa Burroughs Trio and Ben Toledo, ler.

The Theresa Burroughs Trio.

ss Burroughs comes to Indianapolis a most delightful little presentation, enting the possibility of the colored formers in her line. This young lady always been spoken of highly, but not this week have the patrons of the n seen fully what she could do. Per- she is the most finished colored per- ers of the day. Her boys, Masters k Jackson and Gallie Gaston, are a support to her. The trio is worthy being seen by all. The audiences ed great appreciation of their work.

In the duo, "Marry Me," Miss Burroughs and Jackson, are seen to splendid advantage. She here displays all the graces and art known to the feminine kind—the beautiful voice, bewitching movements, rippling laughter, all making for what has already been said of her. She is of superb form, pretty face and wears very good clothes—a stage ideal as one will readily see. Gaston is funny in his (wench) characterization, singing "You'll Want My Love." They close with "The Kansas City Twin"—the trio.

THERESA BURROUGHS.

Miss Burroughs carries out her own ideas of staging, dancing and so forth. In fact everything done by the trio is of her own supervision. In private life Miss Burroughs is Mrs. Marion Brooks, her husband being Marion Brooks, author of that popular playlet, "The Border Line."

MORTON & MORTON

Comedy, Music, Dancing.

Ferd and Rose Morton are an interesting pair, who do a number of good taking stunts. Miss Morton is a wideawake performer, helping out the fun all the way through. She puts over the "Blues" to the satisfaction of the audiences who for some reason take very kindly to that kind of singing. Her voice is of good quality.

Mr. Morton, "Jelly Roll," is a slight reminder of "String Beans." He does a pianologue in good style. He plays a good piano, classics and rags with equal ease. His one hand stunt, left hand alone, playing a classic selection, is a good one.

FERD MORTON
As New Orleans Jelly Roll.

They do an amusing comedy bit, singing "That Ain't Got 'Em." This is sung by both of them in a duo style. They make a hit in this, which is Morton's own composition. In fact he composes most of his own songs and arranges his other work. As a comedian Morton is grotesque in his makeup and sustains himself nicely through the work. They are a clever pair, giving a pleasing show.

SAM EVANS

Ventriloquist.

Sam Evans, our own Sam, is back again among us after doing twenty weeks of Dudley's eastern time. After resting a while here he will go on Dudley's western time. Evans comes back greatly improved in his line of comedy for his doll and himself. They talk along in a highly pleasing conversational way. Both getting off funny ones. Really the doll is forgotten as such, and becomes for the moment a real individual. This is made so by the interest Evans injects into his work. He uses three voices. His quiet lips are a feature. His voice calling from below in imitation of the devil is as good as may be done. This realism adds value to the work. Sam has got something worth seeing and hearing.

BEN TOLEDO

Juggler, Balancer.

Ben Toledo is a brand new one to the Crown Garden patrons. He does quite a number of difficult balancing feats, among which is that sliding a lamp back and forth on the blade of a sword. He puts a lamp high in the air on the end of a flexible whip. Perhaps his most difficult feat was balancing a lighted lamp on his head, kneeling to the floor, taking up a glass of wine in his mouth, drinking it all without the use of his hand. Some of his feats were accompanied with juggling. He gave a pleasing entertainment.

The Darktown Follies, with Lubrie Hill, the colored Geo Cohan, is scoring a big success at Hammerstein's Theater, New York. Just as I predicted two weeks ago, Johnnie Peters is one big hit in the show and as a dancer Hammerstein audiences have never seen any better. I will review the show this week down stairs.

Chicago Weekly Review

By Sylvester Russell.

COLORED COMPOSERS CONCERT AT ORCHESTRA HALL—NATHANIEL DETT AND ERNEST A. AMOS APPEAR WITH PATTI BROWN AND HACKNEY.

If writers could only think, before they disinter, unthankfully in their language, Felix Borowski would not have doted on Hackney's domestic occupation, in the Record-Herald of June 4th. His duty as a critic was to tell of art and the rest of his brogue could have well been erased. And Borowski is mistaken. White people would turn out quicker to hear their waiter sing than they would to hear Harry Burleigh, and the reason why Orchestra Hall was not filled was because the concert was poorly advertised. Those who read the criticisms of Borowski, Harry Moore, of the Journal, and Karleton Hackett of the Evening Post, will no doubt enjoy and hail the independent views of a critic of their own race with pleasure. That colored composers were given a hearing in the great Orchestra Hall on the most aristocratic boulevard in the city where the greatest white artists of years of superior tuition shine, and that the white people outnumbered the colored folk in attendance, is but a tribute of high esteem which white people place upon Negro music and the work of its composers and interpreters. It was clearly a composers' evening, and one in which S. Coleridge Taylor, now departed, was master. If we are to mention the other composers represented, Will Marion Cook, J. Rosemond Johnson and Harry Burleigh, the greater one than they, Harry Lawrence Freeman, was left out and only because Ernest Hogan sickened and died too soon to further introduce Freeman or get his grand opera and other works before the public or in the market. In citing the program, in routine, Burleigh's "Deep River" chorus was an unexhilarated nicety, as was "Dig My Grave," both short themes. Then came Anita Patti Brown in Taylor's "Spring Song," which was one of her best numbers, for in "Then he sat Down" from Hiawatha, there were moments of laxity and no artist can interpret a master's work except from the study of memory. The "Corn Song," introduced Ernest R. Amos. It was Burleigh's masterpiece for he is the weakest of the composers mentioned and Amos, whose artistic value was at once recognized, seemed to lack confidence in himself until he discovered that he was the vocal favorite of the evening. His voice is a pure baritone in quality, limited in power, but adequate enough to be heard to an advantage. Of R. Nathaniel Dett, the new composer and pianist, who played his own compositions, it can safely be said that he gave the best indication of what he will later be if he continues in practice, unaffected. He is a better pianist than Taylor was, whom I once heard in Philadelphia, but it will be some time before he can approach Taylor in genius as a composer. Detts' "Magnolia Suit" had richness in a variety of themes that were deftly entrancing. In speaking of the composers already mentioned, in which J. Rosemond Johnson can claim second place on the program, because he is original, Mr. Amos placed stars in his artistic crown, in "Since You Went Away" and "L'il Gal," two light gems by Johnson. But Taylor's "Unmindful of the Roses" was quite as full of glorious repose. In Taylor's "Tell O Tell Me" Patti Brown was at her best vocally and her notes were flute-like in sweetness; but in other Taylor numbers her art and deviation of tone was grieving. To make a breastwork of William H. Hackney, he is the one man deserving of very much credit. It may be that he was overworked. I have heard him in his own recitals to a better vocal and artistic advantage in Taylor's works, but his conductorship and the work of the chorus was extra good. When Hackney woke up to his best number, Will Marion Coke's "Exhortation," there were encores and in the duet (from Edymion's Dream) he and Patti Brown were quite satisfactory and the prima donna was burdened with flowers. T. Theodore Taylor, who still improves as an accompanist, was grouchy in tempo but gave color in shading and William Gossetti was splendid at the organ. It is generally hoped that the effort will be repeated again.

Lone Bert Murphy at the Grand Theater.
Miller & Lyles Score.

It's not the cough,
That carries you off—
It's the coffin,
They carry you in.

That's what Bert Murphy, late of Murphy & Francis said, when he introduced his song at the Grand last Monday evening. He sang about a little dog and carried a live puppy. Murphy has but one fault. He's sensitive. If he thinks he's not appreciated he's shy on his humor. He is hardly aware that people always wear a smile when they see him, but he is too impassive to know why they always play him on the big time. He danced with the same agility that made him famous. Miller & Lyles, in a new course of talk, scored heavily. The white acts were DeBars in deceptive illusions; the Four Frasers, in novel Scotch dancing and the Bonomora Arabs, good acrobatic athletes. The second half of last week had Moss & Frye, who remained and pleased. Cumby & Warfield, in a crap game overdone, but amusing, and the following white acts: Kelso Brothers, good jugglers; Livingston trio, in a rollicking turn and Fink's comedy circus, which returned, ever popular. Fridays will be tango nights and Saturdays, song contests, during the summer.

Butler and Johnson at the New Monogram.

Although Mr. Butler was a newcomer, his ability to be an amusing comedian was enough to welcome him with his well known partner, Miss Eloise Johnson, who has at last become a real actress, who knows how to dress, look weet and play a part. Rosa Brown was another well known favorite, who looked well in pants but danced and sang better than she talked. Chenault & Singleton, who are good artist cartoonists, were both attractable, and Kid Thompson was also on the bill. Charels Elgar, the violinist, has joined the orchestra.

String Beans (Butler May) Returns to the Monogram More Popular Than Ever.

Since String Beans has improved by criticism, the lanky bewildering idol of unsuspected joy, has taken on a new coat of popularity and kept the house full at every performance. And while he paid too much attention to the trap drummer, and people in the audience, he got through all right on his dancing, which was legitimate. Miss Baby Mack, who assisted him is a fine soubrette. Others notably on the bill were Leona Marshall, who fully sustained her past reputation; Frank Hendon, "The Stage Struck Girls," writer, made his Chicago debut and was well received. He is full of comedy humor which will stand out broader with more stage experience. His playing on the banjo and coin table were good and his newspaper burlesque gags were so much in advance of the hoodlum element that they could hardly seem to digest the humor. Henderson W. Bowens and Schiller Emerson, popular local cabaret entertainers, were very well received. Bowens is a god tenor and Emerson, who is a light composer, showed some artistic cleverness, both as a player and singer, but his accompaniments for the voice were a little heavy.

AMONG THE MOVIES.

The States—"Flames of Justice" and "The Lost Sermon" filled the States, which is cool and airy.

The Lincoln—Like the States, this house was nice and cool. "Coils of Calamity" was of interest.

The Phoenix—"Broncho Billy's Leap" was another one of the features which have grown popular at this house.

The Fountain—"Hats and Gowns" was a picture fad. This house is next to the Chateau Garden.

The Washington—Aaron Dale's great play, "Regeneration," will be seen next Sunday. The new orchestra which is excellent, includes Erskine Tate, violinist; Harry Johnson, cornet; Florence Clark, pianist, and Danny Parker, trap drummer.

The Star—This house is situated on State betwen Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth. "St. George and the Dragon" was the star picture on the bill.

The Alamo—The management informs me that the inspectors consider this house the healthiest small theater.

George Reeves, trap drummer of the Monogram, was thrown from his new motorcycle last Tuesday week. His shoulder was dislocated and he was unable to play in the theater that night and on other occasions during the week. It was hinted that Reeves had to stop or run over a boy who was crossing, but it is known that the drummer is as yet an amateur cycler and a nervous marksman.

Glosso, the new discovery which grows hair, manufactured by Mrs. Lola E. Grayson at 3825 State street, Chicago, brought so many orders in that she was compelled to place her advertisement back in The Freeman.

The resignation of Erskine Tate from the New Monogram, directly after Harry Johnson was cut off, created quite a gossip in musicians' circles. In reply to an interview Harry Johnson, the cornetist, stated that when he was given only a three days' notice to be cut off he accepted a position at the Washington for more money. Erskine Tate stated that when he asked for a raise as violinist through Will Dorsey, the leader, who was unable to control the situation, he submitted another competent musician whom the management refused. After giving a week's notice, he left one day ahead of time in order to secure the leadership at the Washington for more money.

Comedian and Road Manager.

The Great Eastern Farce Comedy Company has closed its two weeks' engagement at the Pekin theater. The second week's offering, "Wife Wanted," was still a funnier farce than the other, built along farcical lines. Henry Drake, the comedian and manager, who called to bid me goodbye, is a young man of good quality and of pleasing personality, who will be sure to win his way to the front according to his merits, both personally and in the show business. He is slightly sensitive of what a critic thinks of some parts of his work undeveloped, but does not complain. He was assured that he is something more than a mere actor, but rather a progressive worker. His wife, Ethel Walker, is a good soprano, whose presence is charming. In fact Drake & Walker could win out big in vaudeville alone. The roster of the company includes Floyd Brown, Henry R. Dixon, Rufus Woods, Albert Edwards, Master Clifton Drake, Hazel Edwards, Lena Turner and Artamis Woods. The new Pekin Stock Company, which opened Thursday, June 11th, will be reviewed next week.

HENRY DRAKE.

CINCINNATI AT LAST

On the South End Corner of the Colored Theatrical Map.

(By Jule Jones, Jr.)

Two imposibles have happened. O how time has changed! All in one year. Cincinnati has a winning ball team, for one thing, and the band is now playing, "Who would have thought it." As to baseball, it is a funny proposition, with its thousands of ifs and ands. These rubes of "Pork Town" are loosing sleep over "rooting." Have already ordered a uag from Hong Kong, China, and a flag from Calcutta, India. Have a pot of one million dollars already made up and will present it to the home team on their return. "Pass the pills, Bill." Don't wake them up. Dreams, O sweet dreams!

As to the theatrical situation, it is a different kind of dream. After these many years of roasting and toasting, the town has stood and sent out noted Negroes. Cincinnati is known the world over. Cincinnati has the reputation of presenting the noted song writer, Gussie L. Davis; Jess A. Shipp, the theatrical producer; Henry Woodson, known as the "Black Diamond."

The only man that the public thought of in the early days was of the mighty John L. Sullivan that had a chance to which the great fighter. That was years before the coming of Peter Jackson. And all of this was before "Washington crossed the Delaware." But to day is another day, the day of new progress in all lines of enterprises of commercial business.

From Cincinnati's lowly position of years gone by has changed, and is now about to be admitted into the ring of the four big cities in the colored amusement world, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington. Cincinnati is away below in population of these four big cities, but according to her population a showing must be reckoned with.

The Lincoln, a vaudeville and picture house, a house seating seven hundred, can easily be rated with the Howard in Washington, and the Grand in Chicago. Cincinnati has two other amusement houses, one a house the other an open-air park. The Pekin, the pioneer house, seating about three hundred, a very nice little vaudeville and picture house. Dixie Land Park, an apology for an air dome, is on its first season. The word "Dixie Land" is on the wrong side of the river. The average founders of these kind of cheap amusement parks seldom know how to name it or even run one. But they do show real enterprising promoters the possibilities. Cincinnati has suffered from a handkerchief sentiment, false race pride and general sidewalk comments. That all other cities have suffered from except the four big cities mentioned. What is the difference as to whose capital builds a theater or as to who manages it. When they furnish you with first-class accommodation and employes all colcolored help from front to back. Cincinnati is overcoming another big drawback that all small cities are undergoing. That is that the better class of people want to go to this place or the other.

Solution to this problem is just about to win action. Three places of amusement afford attraction to please all. Six months ago a great yell went up: How can another theater live in the city? If these kickers had looked five inches from their nose, they would have seen eight white theaters on Fifth street, all within two blocks. Cincinnati has one hundred and fifty-six moving picture and vaudeville houses, not counting Newport and Covington. And pointing to the fact that there is only three amusement places in Cincinnati, in a city that is almost Jim Crowed to the limit. If one per cent of the colored population attended like the whites, three houses could not accommodate them.

All the houses are located in the central part of the city, with every convenience. The building of this new theatrical colony speaks for itself, new era of prosperity.

Be the first from your town to enter The Freeman's College Scholarship Contest.

AT THE DIXIE THEATRE, ATLANTA, GA.

This week's bill at this house is pronounced by all to be better than last week's, consisting of all-star performers, as last week's bill with an addition of Thelma, the Great, who needs no introduction to the public, as this young man has set a pace hard to beat in his own particular line.

Chas. H. Coffin has the stage and the after-piece presented by him is considered the best seen here in a number of weeks.

Coffey & Vaughn, the laugh, scream, yell pair, present another neat S. T. D. act of merit and their running rapid-fire conversation is received by the audience with much more enthusiasm than has been manifested in this house in a long time. This team is a sure fire hit and makes good on any bill.

The team of Ketchell & Burke opened but the female members of the team were canceled after the first show. The male members worked single after the first show and it was a far better act than as a team. He pleased the audience and left them screaming.

Then the Two Sweets, better than ever, in another kid act in which all know they are past masters of, and when little Lulu gets through with the Togo Blues please let them alone. Bill Too Sweet is still eating bread and gravy and telling the audience about how his landlady mistreats him. Nuf sed, for you all know his line and pleasing personality, so an explanation is unnecessary.

Thelma, the Great, rounds out the bill, fairly standing them on their heads when he discloses his sex, for I must say he is without a doubt, barring none, the best female impersonator in the business. This young man has a bright future ahead of him.

Mr. Chas. P. Bailey, the prince of good fellows, is all smiles, and why not; he has the show, and a good show is bound to get the money. He wants to hear from all the best people in the business; good salary and long engagements assured good people in stock and vaudeville.

"RUBE" FOSTER WINS SENSATIONAL GAME.

Old Time Vigor Exhibited by Veteran Ball Player—Wins from Benton Harbor by Score of 5 to 4 in Ninth—Hill, Barbor, Lloyd, Duncan and Monroe Fighting for Highest Batting Average—Ball Fans to Give Prize to the One Having High Average at Close of Season.

(By Cary B. Lewis)

Special to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—"Rube" Foster, king of ball pitchers, again showed the fans just how much he still "holds 'em." Last Sunday, Mr. Foster was feeling fine. The sun just baked down upon him, but this made him all the better for the day's work. His opponent was Young "Cy" Young. Of course "Cy" has a reputation among local fans that would fill a magazine, but this did not keep "Rube" from giving him a good trimming. The Benton Harbor boys came with the expectation of winning by big odds from the local team, but they were sadly mistaken. As usual, the Giants believed in and have a principle of winning in the first nning. Hill, Duncan, Barber and Lloyd, "diamond Monroe," and Mr. Foster succeeded in hitting "Cy," registering four scores. Benton Harbor did likewise in the third innng. It was in the seventh, on a double by Hill, and a single by Lloyd. In the ninth, the white boys tried their best to tie the score, but good fielding by Francis kept them from scoring. The score:

South Bend Sunday.

The South Bend team, champions of the State of Indiana, will play Foster's nine at the American Giants Park. This is another white team and are coming to lower the Giants' record. The game is expected to be fast and furious. Lloyd has a new bat for the occasion, and he says he is going to send the pill right over the bull. Be there to see him do it. Mr. Walter Speedy thinks the Giants will "bring the bacon home," and if you don't believe it, see him, in the box behind the wire. Box seats on sale at the box office.

SOX DEFEAT STARS.

West Enders Score Enough Runs in Opening Round to Beat Visitors.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(Special)—The White Sox won from the Cincinnati Stars at Spring Bank Park Sunday afternoon by the score of 5 to 2. The game was fast and interesting from start to finish and featured by several spectacular plays. Moore and Watson were robbed of sure home runs by the sensational fielding of Harris and Renfro. The White Sox bunched their hits off Parrott in the first inning for a total of five runs. Moore twirled a good game for the Sox, while his teammates gave him faultless support. The score:

BULL SNAKES NECESSARY FOR THE "WILD CAT REPRESENTS."

The director of the Eclair studio at Tucson, Arizona, has been on a still hunt for the last few days for forty bull snakes, a strange sort of property to be sure, but they are absolutely necesary to the filming of an O'Henry story entitled "Wildcat Represents," which the Eclair players are making at the present time. In one scene of this picture the leading character, "Wildcat," breaks up a lynching party by turning forty bull snakes loose among the "necktie party" and with his customary desire for true atmosphere and realism, the Eclair director will have nothing bu the real article. Thus far he has managed to gather in three of the writhing creatures and it is a notable fact that all of the players around the Tucson studio are giving the boudoir of the snakes a wary eye and a wide berth. A large amount of fun and excitement is promised to all those who witness the taking of the scene in which the bull snakes will take the leading part.

STAR THEATER, DALLAS, TEX.

This is the fourth week for the present company at the Star and each change of program brings a first class, clean and clever performance. Davenport and Davenport are just simply cleaning up. Skunktown is a great favorite in Dallas. While his pretty female partner continues to flash beautiful gowns. Bill Bailey, the clever dancer, seems to be just as refreshing today as the day he opened. Miss Pauline Crampton, the clever character artist, is still scoring success. Jessie Heart, the dainty dance soubrette, is always pleasing. May Wilson, the sweet voiced singer, always has a new song or two that pleases. Gloomy Gus Smith, the droll talker, comes in for his share of applause. Princess Rajah is also on the bill and between her and Davenport the last acts are being produced to the satisfaction of everybody. There are twelve of us in all on the bill and there is room for more. So write us. The Great Thelma write at once; long engagement.

GIBSON'S NEW STANDARD THEATER, PHILADELPHIA.

That exuberance of youth and that spontaneity that is so effective when an actress possesses it in abundance carried Ray Bailey to a brilliant vaudeville success at Gibson's New Standard theatre this week. She was ingenious and of cumulative interest and was received with much enthusiasm and was obliged to respond to a number of curtain calls. Pete Hampton and Bowman always have new and bright material. They have originality in singing songs that are original, and the repartee and the by-play that are the backbone of the act are always "smart." The singing of "Dat Melon On De Vine," bringing down the house. Johnson and Baylor won much approval especially in singing "Oh, Wouldn't That Be a Dream." Venable, Owens Trio sang good. Smith and Hatch were decidedly entertaining and Chicken Jones and Lena Wilson in their song and dance rounded out the show.

NOTES FROM A RABBIT FOOT COMPANY.

(Freddie Pratt.)

We are meeting with great success during our stay in old Kentucky, and the results have been far above expectation. At Earlington we played to an audience of about nine hundred. A large bunch came over from Madisonville, where our Gold Band was sent for by special request, and gave a thirty minutes' concert, receiving congratulations on all sides, and returning to Earlington at 2:45 p. m. We found a large crowd awaiting our arrival at Bowling Green, where we spent an enjoyable day, meeting many friends and especially Mr. A. J. Duncan, Ph. G. and proprietor of the Park City drug store, where we were guests all day and whom we found to be an ideal gentleman. Our manager, Mr. F. S. Wolcott, and Ralph Redmond, band leader, visited the J. C. O'Brien's famous Georgia Minstrels at Clarksville, Tenn, and returned next day. Our nine-piece orchestra under the direction of Mr. A. D. King, is featuring some nice publications and never fail to get theirs. Mrs. Mildred Lee is on the sick list, but hope to soon be well again. Our base ball team is playing fast ball now and the infield composed of Blue, Pratt, Briggs and Young, is almost perfect. Robert Everly, the Jelly Roll Kid, is singing "Ich Gebibble" and is a real coonologist. The bunch all read the Freeman and sends best regards to all friends. Freddie Pratt says hello. Capt. Dick Anderson, why don't you write?

GOING JUST AS BIG AS EVER—LAJOY AND BAILEY IN SAVANNAH, GA.

Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Elwood Knox:

Dear Sir and Friend—We write you to let you know that we are still on earth and that we are going just as big as ever, and we can honestly say that we get ours without smutt. We are working some territory that is really hard, especially for high-class acts, but we are getting ours, so you know the answer. If you "ain't got em' you "don't get 'em." We just closed a successful two weeks' engagement at the Pike Theatre, Mobile, and Mr. P. J. McNiff says, "Keep in touch with me. I wish we could get more clean acts like yours and less 'Ball-de-Jacks,' so my advice to performers is to wake-up and do something."

We opened at the Pekin Theatre, Savannah, Monday, June 6, 1914, and can say without exaggerating that we got ours and was in good fast company.

We are building a new act, Italian, which we intend to stage soon, thanks to "Bob" Russell for his assistance with this act. There is no doubt but what it will be a winner. Will send you photo of the act later and you can put the cut in your very valuable paper, which has been of much assistance to us, and we would not be without it, for it has made many dollars for us.

J. C. MILES' BAND AND MINSTRELS WITH JONES BROS. & WILSON'S 3-RING CIRCUS.

We are now traveling through New York State, having just left Pennsylvania, where the show did an entraordinary business. This state, too, starts off as though she will be a "pippin," as we have been welcomely greeted by tremendous crowds at each stand so far. Our colored band must be a feature here, as we get quite a praise from both the management and the public. The popular ragtime numbers and standard selections, and the way they are being put over, must be responsible for the congratulations along this line. Since our last writing, Mr. James Jackson joined our band. Mr. Jackson is some trombonist, too. He and our old reliable, Ernest Montague, form some trombone battery, while Ben Jones, tuba; Ed Miller, alto; Chas. Brewer, clarinet; James Small, baritone; Jess Watt, snare drum, and Edward Evans, bass drum, and owing to the illness of Mr. P. M. Williams, cornet player, Mr. Peter Davis is assisting J. C. Miles on cornets. Mr. Williams is expected to be up and on the job again in a few days. He's some cornet player, boys. Ed Miller says "hello, Isaiah Wilds. I have an awful kick coming around this show. If it isn't come and eat, it's go to the office and get your salary. That's so troublesome; nix. J. C. Miles says hello back, Seymour James, also Freddie Pratt. Say, John Heads Wilson, Ernest Montague wants to hear from you. Mrs. Miles is still getting them with her song hit, "Good-bye, My Own Dear Heart." The entire company sends best regards to all, both in and out. Correspondence always welcomed. Write us, care Jones Bros. & Wilson's Shows, U. S. Printing & Lithograph Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

JOHN W. DENNIS WRITES FROM THE W. A. EILERS NEW ORLEANS MINSTRELS.

We are now in the State of Iowa and doing a great business, John W. Dennis states. We played a two-day stand in Topeka, Kans., and in the meantime had our elegant Pullman cars in the A. T. & S. F. shops. Topeka being the birthplace of J. Dennis, he had some time. F. B. Wood, our band master, was at home while we played Sunday, matinee and night, at the Crystal Theater.

Mrs. F. B. Wood made it pleasant for our company while in St. Joe. Our show has been greatly strengthened by Master Aaron Gates, conversationalist, and Jim Manapilator. Mr. Gates is in a class by himself. John W. Dennis and his dog, "Uno," met with a painful accident while in Blockton, Iowa. An automobile ran over the dog while parading. In trying to get the dog out from under the machine, the chauffeur lost his head and ran over Dennis and his dog, both being badly bruised but are on the road to recovery. Our show is running smoothly. Everybody deserves credit for each and every act. Our band is rapidly improving under the leadership of Prof. F. B. Wood.

Lonnie Kyles, please write to J. W. Dennis. I lost ad. Also Allie Young, I want to hear from you. Our company sends regards to entire profession.

Mrs. F. B. Wood is spending a few days with the show. She is all smiles. Our baseball club is getting theirs. Played a hard game, 1 to 0, in nine innings, in favor of the show.

Mrs. Hattie Payton would like to hear from Mr. Clifton Payton and Mrs. Vida Able. We will soon be over in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Austin send regards to the Busby bunch. Regards to the entire profession. Eilers New Orleans Minstrels.

NOTES FROM WOLFSCALE'S BAND WITH BARNUM & BAILEY'S CIRCUS

Professor Wolfscale's Company are now in the state of New York with the Greatest Show on Earth. Everyone is enjoying the best of health and send best regards to their many friends in and out of the profession. While playing Buffalo, N. Y., Br. Bennie Stratton, bass player, was married to Miss Viola Williams. Mr. Stratton, wife and friends and several of the band boys were tendered a supper by Mrs. William Mr. Stratton's mother-in-law. We all congratulate Mr. Stratton and wish him and his bride a happy married life.

Wolfscale's band base ball team by the name of the Annex Giants, and under the management of Robert Scott, will play their first game of the season at Stanford, Conn.

Professor Wolfscale's Minstrels and Plantation Shows are the features of the side show. Mr. J. C. (Frosty) Moore, is stage manager of the Plantation show, and Mr. Moore puts on a show that is a scream from start to finish. Earl Terry and W. B. White are the two principal comedians in Wolfscale's Minstrels and they furnish plenty of fun with their funny sayings and their eccentric dancing.

Mr. Jas. McDonald and Chas. Holloway send best regards to Prof. A. A. Wright of the Sparks show.

Prof. Wolfscale sends best regards to Prof. Pope, Prof. Jas. Harris and Prince O. S. Kuzuma.

NOTES FROM POP ADAMS' BAND AND MINSTRELS WITH CIRCLE D RANCH.

This writing finds us in the State of Iowa. Business continues good. All is well on board. We feel that we are very fortunate up to the present time in that we have not had one rainy day. Mr. Striplin, our cornetist, spent yesterday (Sunday) in Chicago with friends and was given a royal welcome by Prof. O. Perry, leader of the orchestra at the Elite, and Grover Reeves and other old-time friends. While in the city he was the guest of Mrs. Estelle Davis, 3538 Dearborn street. He has a host of friends in that city. When he returned for business he was considerably done up.

Our side-show manager, Mr. Bert Chipp-

ber of utility men for the show, and returned just after the "blow-off." When they were first sighted we thought surely it was some antagonistic farce, so large was the number and so determined was the look upon the men's faces that one could hear hurried consultations in several groups as to ways and means of defense. However, our fears were soon vanished, the men having disposed of their several pieces of luggage, prepared for dinner and entered the dining- room with the same determined look that so strongly characterized the appearance on the job. But after being entertained by Mr. Baird, our efficient steward, they came out wearing "the smile that won't come off." In Mr. Chippman's absence our assistant "red top" manager, Mr. Bill Tumbler, handled business. Mr. Tumbler is a well experienced man in the business and when it comes to handling crowds he is as much at home as an English lord in a London drawing room. Mr. Will James, our trap drummer, sends best regards to all of the Clifton Kelly shows. Harry (Big Boy) Anderson sends best regards to all members of the Drake & Walker Stock Company. Billy Bright says hello "Hop," with Jimmie Harris.

AMAZING FIGURES ON "MOVIES."

A Most Wonderful Industry—Hints On Scenario Writing and Acting.

(By Hunter C. Haynes, of The Afro-American Film Co., New York City.)

It is an undeniable fact that moving pictures are one of the greatest ten inventions of modern times. The development of this rapid growing industry is now a subject for writers in newspapers and magazines of every kind. I fear, that the Negro does not fully realize what the moving picture has meant to them, or what it is going to mean in the future. In the middle ages miracles and mystery plays were allies of the church. They accomplished much for the cause of popular religion. The moving pictures can do the same thing today if given a chance. It is an agency which is right at home, it can be scorned and frowned upon and called taboo. It may, however, be welcomed and unlifted and be made a mighty agency in the general welfare of the American Negro. Within the past five years there has been manifestation of of the popularity of this class of amusement. A deep and conscientious study of the future possibilities of the moving pictures, brings to light a new school of actors who have fathomed the mysteries of unspoken language. It is much more difficult to act before the camera than on the stage. It is not so easy to convey all the varied emotions, such as joy, misery, love, hate, envy, regret, and grief solely by the expression of the face and by the movements. The actor or actress who can act or pantomime, so as to bring tears or pity or, on the other hand, of laughter to the eyes of the audience, may look forward to a bright future, as they will be the ones required by the moving picture firms.

The remarkable and rapid growth of this industry has also opened another field, and that is scenario writing. A scenario writer, however, must first have all the ability of a playwright for the legitimate stage, added to that, he must have the unusual ability of producing the story—keeping the interest clear and unflagging—without the assistance of written or spoken words, the entire action must be unfailingly indicated in pantomime. To do this in a practical way, requires more than casual knowledge of just how the pictures are taken at the studio—the way the scenes are set, the possibilities of scientific photography—the sort of scenery available. A scenario, for instance, which requires the use of a square-rigged, sailing ship, or the floundering of a steamer would be useless to a director whose "props" did not include such a ship or constant access to it. For these reasons a scenario writer should always consult the director of some moving picture concern regarding such props as his scenario might call for. He should also try to secure permission to watch a few plays staged, so as to get some idea of the technicalities. These are two of the essential elements working in harmony towards the whole, and have in part been responsible for the increasing popularity of this new art, which has opened the eyes of the world.

During 1913 there were more than five billion admissions paid at the doors of over 25,000 moving picture theaters in the United States. There was something like ninety-six million feet of film exhibited every night except Sunday. American film manufacturers exported more than 25,000 of film, which is the length of one time around the earth. There were thirty names added to the list of American millionaires which was accumulated directly from the moving picture industry. During the early period of telegraphy, telephone and other great inventions which are today paying big dividends the Negro was not financially prepared to invest in the stocks. But it is far different today. The Negro has money and has a golden opportunity to invest his money in this most profitable industry, as same as the white men are doing. There are today over 250 exclusive Negro theaters in the United States. After carefully studying the film manufacturing business, and the present condition of the Negro exhibitors, I am thoroughly convinced that an exchange established either in New York, Chicago for the purpose of furnishing weekly service to Negro theaters would prove most profitable, and would certainly meet with a cordial reception from the various Negro managers throughout the country. I do not believe, however, that under any condition an entire service consisting of pictures portrayed, and posed by Negro actors would prove profitable, but a service furnishing all the latest events of national interest, best white productions, with one or two Negro comedies and dramas in each week's program, would prove to be a big paying proposition, and doubtless, if conservatively managed would show at least 30 per cent on the investment.

Taking these figures mentioned as a guide, makes it evident that there are many genius minds at work, either in attempting to perfect the present methods, or introducing new ideas.

This is the day of new masters in every line of human activity. The old "head handchief" and "candle light" ideas have ceased to play any important part in the business ethics of this time. We're living at a mile-a-second gait in the swiftest epoch of the world's progress—in the age of incredibilities come true. We are now flying through the air chatting with our friends in Paris by squirting a little spark from a pole on one shore of the Atlantic to another pole on the other side, and so we take as a matter of course that which our grandfathers would declare a miracle.

My advice would be to the Negro who has money to invest now in the moving picture industry.

Special to The Freeman.

Miss Bessie Rogers has returned to her home from Durham, N. C., where she has been attending college.

Mr. J. Reed was in Chicago the 20th to be present at the operation of his mother. He left her resting quite easy, Friday.

Chief M. T. Bailey, of the True Reformers, was in the city on business.

Can you tell we where I can purchase The Freeman? Yes? Where? On Illinois street from Geo. Giles. You will have to hurry because the Caucasion will beat you and get the last he has. Why? Because it is the greatest colored journal published. When you get it it tells you what the churches are doing all over the United States, it also lets you know where your favorite baseball player is. Then, best of all, it will find your mother or your best friend. Is not that the paper you want to read. Yes?

PERFORMERS, TAKE NOTICE.

The Freeman has received word that George Smith, an old performer, now in an unfortunate position, wishes assistance from all brother performers. The Freeman will gladly receive all donations for Mr. Smith at this office. Write him direct at Petros, Tennessee, care of penitentiary.

PREPARING FOR THE BIG SCRAP.

London and Paris Interested—Indians Play Colored Champs in Prison—A Game of Interest and Fun.

(By Billy Lewis.)

LONDON, June 5.—Six thousand sovereigns, the largest sum of gold ever deposited to insure a glove contest, were posted in the office of the Sportsman this afternoon for the approaching match between "Jack" Johnson and "Sam" Langford. The cash was handed over by Gerard Austin, representing the syndicate promoting the fight. He was accompanied by a bodyguard of commissionaires in uniform who closely guarded six bags, each containing 1,000 sovereigns. The money represents Johnson's share whether he wins, loses or draws.

The United States friends of Jack Johnson will feel at rest, knowing that he is again in the money. It looked, one time, as if the champ was going to have difficult sledding even after he had escaped to his "haven." But things have come his way, to some extent, and perhaps for good.

Very little has come from Paris direct from Jack Johnson himself. So, just what he has endured is not known, and may never be known. Silence, one would think, is discretion, since he has found a welcome amid the new people, whether it has been as cordial as he expected or not. But a history of his life from Reno up until the Moran go would prove a most attractive volume. A biography would be better or an autobiography which allowed nothing of his life to escape. I can conceive of no more fascinating "piece" of literature, that is, if the work was done so as to merit the title. Not only would there be a recital of interesting facts, but their inspiration—arising out of a quarrel of men about the rights of men. Then with Chicago, New York, London, Paris, as the backgrounds in the main including incidentally, the total world of civilizaton. It would be some book.

Perhaps the story of his life too well told, as Hugo might tell it, or Balzac, would not be well for the present age. For when the rights of men are the theme we forget nationality and think of the individual. We exchange places with the subjects readily, and ere we are aware we are all aflame at our vicarious suffering. Harriet Beecher Stowe was such a writer, who could arouse the very rocks to mutiny, as Shakespeare has it.

I am going a little strong, one would say, may be; and without my bearings well in mind. Well, just read this latter-day repentant, a white sport writer:

"When one considers the big smoke's educational shortcomings, a fair resume of all the hullabaloo about this "white slave" stuff makes it very apparent that the big smoke never got any charity in the newspaper accounts. Just a plain Galveston levee roustabout, who found out he could fight and then got rich, his behavior has been no whit worse than that of many a Chicago or Pittsburg millionaire who made his pile in steers or steel instead of in the ring.

"It is not in the books that he ever used a pistol in his love affairs. Limelight and mazuma formed the lure, the same weapons that a famous steel magnate used on a stage beauty that broke up his home. The steel magnate was never indicted. Johnson deserves at least an even break."

Such confessions do the work. In spite of what we may do or say men know the truth when they see or hear it.

According to report both Johnson and Moran are training hard. Moran expresses himself as getting in a fit condition. He says: "I have been putting in my hardest licks with Kennedy, of New York, and I expect to have Al Kubiak in my camp for the last three weeks before the scrap. I am in fine shape and expect to win."

Johnson is not a bit uneasy in spite of talk that he is going back, getting too fat, living too high, and the rest of it. Remember the date, June 27, at Paris.

They have high old times now and then even behind prison walls. A few weeks ago the prisoners of a California institution had a game of baseball between two teams made up of the inmates. The game had all of the features of the clubs that play on the outside, including brow-beating the umpire. The umpire was also a prisoner. He got in a mixup with a pitcher, coming to high words. They got very angry. The pitcher told the umpire that as soon as he got out of prison he was going to beat him up. The umpire told him that he would have great difficulty in carrying out his contract since he got out about three years before he did.

Last week the Indianapolis, a big league team, played the colored team of the Columbus, Ohio, prison. The colored fellows are the champs of the two teams, the other being made up of white players.

Warden Thomas mustered up a worthy audience—just 1,600. Those who have attended the A. B. C. games in Indianapolis where the attendance is from 800 up, can imagine what a "gang" of spectators thes ewere. One is tempted to stop and think about so many persons behind prison walls. But there's nothing that's not worthy of study—sermons in stones. But hear Ralston Goss, the sport writer on the Indianapolis Star, on the subject:

"It was not so much the game as the demeanor of the audience and the black men who were playing against Manager Hendrick's team that was interesting. Imagine, if you can, 1,600 prisoners considered the dregs of humanity, sitting entirely around a ball field of generous proportions, cheering lustily at good plays, hooting at the umpire—good-naturedly it must be said—endeavoring by the means employed by the average fan to "get the goats" of the visiting players. Such was the spectacle presented this morning. Not one of the prisoners thus permitted to enjoy the game made a false move, not one but who showed his thorough appreciation of the treat afforded him. Furthermore, there was an official scorer, one of the publishers of the Prison News, who kept a box score and who, at the conclusion of the contest, said rather wistfully: 'I wish I could see this team of yours playing in a regular game.' "

The writer moralizes a bit after this manner: "And who can in truth say that the opportunity he had to see the game he did witness will not help to make him a citizen amenable to law and order when he does regain his liberty, in the hope—if for no other reason—that he may be permitted ever afterward to see professional ball games to his heart's desire?

"And when Tommy Griffith hit the ball clear over the wall that detains these men from associating with those of us who have not been placed behind it, there was not more than a ripple of laughter when "Noisy" Hanley, shortstop for the Giants, cried out: 'Dear child, I'd like to be a'ridin' dat ball!' It was pathetic as well as humorous."

A pretty story, big with sympathy. It suggests the song, "Like As a Father Pitieth His Children," etc. Our national game may not prove to do so very much, but one can rest assured that, judging by the intense interest of the 1,600 prisoners it were like the sowing of the seed. Some may have fallen in stony places, but not all. Some of those men returned to their cells profoundly stirred. First, at the big hearted, thoughtful warden who made their pleasure possible. Then, again, owing to the pleasurable shock that came to them during the game. Liberty advanced in value, more precious because of what it holds, advancing because its cornucopia pours out more and more. Here was a vivid panorama, when men were in the reflective mood. O, yes, it was a splendid thing. Thoughts were set in motion that will end only with eternity.

The Freeman enters many prisons in this country. This is because we furnish news of the race from all sections and concerning all phases of life. Knowing this it is a pleasure that we set out in full this game between a first class big league team and men behind closed walls—Negro men. If one has become hardened, too much so by ill usage—ill civil usage—feeling that all hands were against the race, he should soften up a bit owing to this incident. "Man's inhumanity to man," says Pope, "makes countless millions mourn." Then how shall we treat this incident in fitting language? When words and acts of sympathy and pity are best spent heaven comes down a bit, reaching after man.

The date of the Willie Ritchie-Freddie Welsh bout for the lightweight championship in London has been postponed from June 30 to July 4. All hitches which threatened to interfere with the bout have been straightened out, according to the manager, guaranteed in New York.

While Ritchie has consented to fight Freddie Welsh for the lightweight championship of the world—and $50,000 and three round trips tickets, the match to take place in England on July 4, Roy Vernon representing the English boxer, offered Ritchie $25,000 for the bout and received a telegram demanding double the price.

LONDON.—Gunboat Smith, society leader—that's the latest stunt here of the American fighter, who is to meet Georges Carpentier, French champion, for twenty rounds in London July 16. The Gunboat, flanked by Dick Burge, and Jim Buckley, his manager, held a big reception in the ballroom of the Waldorf hotel. The London papers treated the affair as a serious function and society reporters by scores shook the hand of Gunboat, which carries the dreamland punch. Smith declared himself in excellent shape and promised to win over Carpentier by a knockout.

Speaking of the baseball game in the Columbus, Ohio, prison last week between the colored team and the Indianapolis league team, the Indianapolis Star had: "Within the prison there are two teams, one composed of 'Gentlemen of Color' the other of white men. To the credit of the blacks it must be said that their Giants are the superior team and it was with them that the Indians clashed. The Giants put up an article of ball that would have done credit to any good semi-professional team in this part of the country. Going into the game with an abiding feeling that they were outclassed, they faltered somewhat and did not perform to their acustomed standard. Otherwise the Tribesmen would have found tougher opposition."

PARIS, France.—"I'll be the same Jack Johnson who went into the ring at Reno," said the black, who beat Jim Jeffries, when denying with warmth here that his bout with Frank Moran, on June 27, would be a hippodrome.

With a big gash over his eye, received when he accidentally butted Jim Kennedy, his sparring partner, Moran has laid off boxing for a few days. He, too, is vehement that the Johnson fight will be on the level.

A. B. C.'S BEAT PLUTOS.

Local Colored Champs Win Uphill Battle, 5 to 4—Scotland Hits Ball Hard.

The A. B. C.'s and French Lick Plutos played one of the best games seen at Northwestern Park this season. Bowser's club winning out, 5 to 4, after a hard struggle. This sensational playing of both clubs kept the large crowd on its feet most of the time. The fielding features were carried off by Heath and DeMoss of the visitors, and Shively, B. Taylor and Scotland for the local champs, Shively making two running catches near the fence.

Bowser's club made a grand uphill fight, the Plutos taking the lead in the first inning and holding it until the eighth. Scotland's bat proved the downfall of the lads from the springs, clouting out two triplets, one in the seventh and eighth, scoring both times himself and sending one across ahead of him. The batting of Turner and B. Taylor also featured.

TITLE BOUT CLINCHED FOR RITCHIE AND WELSH.

Lightweight Champ to Receive $35,000 for Battle in London.

NEW YORK.—With a big pocketfull of American dollars and the agreement of Willie Ritchie to fight him twenty rounds in London on July 4, Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion of England, sailed June 6 on the Imperator.

Ritchie will follow Welsh on Wednesday, on the new Cunarder Aquitania. He was to leave Chicago for New York today.

The battle will be staged in London, at the Olympia. The boys will weigh in at 135 pounds at 2 o'clock.

The end of the argument came along last night when Bob Vernon, representing Charles Cochrane, the English promoter, placed a certified check for $5,200 with Billy Gibson. This goes for the staging of the match and $200 for Ritchie's expenses to this city.

Ritchie is to receive a guarantee of $15,000 for fighting, $10,000 for his share of the moving pictures and $10,000 for the advertising privileges.

Ritchie asserted, a few days ago, that if the $5,000 was posted with Billy Gibson he would immediately start for London.

Ever since Ritchie won the title from Wolgast, Welsh has been after him for a try at the crown. They met at Los Angeles some time ago in a twenty-round bout and Welsh received the referee's decision. This has always rankled in Ritchie's bosom and he always declared that the first good purse he received for meeting Welsh would bring about the match. This is the good purse.

BASEBALL LOGIC.

Ball players who care more for their batting averages than they do to win ball games are soon discovered. They seldom find a place with a first-class team.

Frequently they are able to conceal their temperament. But as soon as they come off the ball field where they have been beaten, go into the shower bath, laughing and singing and then yell out, "It's me for a big, fat steak tonight," any self-respecting manager will either impose a fine or look around for a trade.

Frequently during batting practice players will start in panning the pitcher who is warming them up. It's almost a certainty this pitcher has too much stuff on the ball to suit them The hitters are afraid to stand up and bat. They like to shoot long and terrific liners to the outfield so the fans in the stands can cheer. But with a fellow putting the dope on the ball they are lucky to lay down a dinky grounder.

"Aw, why don't you send in somebody who can locate the plate," they snarl.

The old alibi.

KNOCKED OUT KID FIELDS—PREPARED TO DO IT AGAIN.

Sporting Editor of Indianapolis Freeman:

Dear Sir—I saw in your paper (The Freeman) of March 21, where Kid Fields of Indianapolis calls himself the colored featherweight champion of the world. He also states that he has had 115 battles and has been defeated once and the fellow that defeated him is afraid to fight him again. I wish to state to the sporting public that I (Billy McClure) am the one who defeated Fields. I knocked Fields out in eight rounds in January before the West Baden A. C. I wish to state that I will fight him by the Marquis of Queensbury rules (clean break) at any time and place, winner take all. I have not had quite as many battles as Fields. I have had sixty-three and lost one. That one was to the One Round Bess (of Indianapolis). Bess knocked me out in two rounds January 14, and March 12, I beat him in ten rounds. I have fought some of the best boys in the game and I will fight any of them if they make my weight. I also wish to state the facts concerning my battle with K. O. Ed Harrison, of Indianapolis. I knocked out Harrison in one round. He put out the report that he won on a foul. I wish to say that I am not one of those dirty fighters. I mean to win all of my battles by clean fighting and any of the men I have met will say that I am a clean fighter. I do not want to be stamped as a dirty fighter as a great number of the present day Negro fighters are. I now "by right" claim to be the colored featherweight champion of Indiana, and am ready to defend my claim with a side bet of $50.00 to $500.00. This goes for them all, Kid Fields or any one else.

Thanking you for the space, I am
Yours truly,
BILLY McCLINE,
West Baden, Ind.

P. S. I will box before any club in the country offering suitable inducements.

SIR THOMAS J. LIPTON'S SHAMROCK IV LAUNCHED.

When the Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas J. Lipton's contender for the America's cup, was launched at the yards of Campbell & Nicholson, Gosport, England, last week the mystery which surrounded her until then vanished and nearly every one who saw her slide into the waters of Portsmouth harbor was surprised. It was a well known fact that Charles Nicholson, her designer, was inclined to be more or less radical, but that he departed so completely from all precedents in the Shamrock IV surprised and staggered most of the yachtmen.

She is the most radical racing yacht ever built in England, and it is not too much to say that she is a freak. Mr. Nicholson was taking a long, desperate chance. Sir Thomas believes he has the necessary vessel with which to lift the cup, and William P. Burton who will sail with her in the race to be held off Sandy Hook next September, is in accord with the designer. In almost every respect she is different from the trio of possible American defenders.

Lipton's new challenger went out for her first sail stretching spin in the vicinity of Spithead. She was accompanied by Shamrock III.

The wind was light and fluky and inadequate to test the capabilities of the challenger. Under her huge mainsail and her sloop foresail she maneuvered handily however, and picked up way quickly after tacking.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Kid Phillips and Kid Sneed Willing To Meet All Comers in Their Class.

Sporting Editor Freeman:

Dear Sir—I have under my management Kid Phillips and Kid Snead, of Kentucky. Phillips, who is the best 133-pound man in the South, wants to meet any one of the best in your city, West Baden or any other town. Kid Snead, who was defeated by Kid Edwards, says he would like a return match, as he is satisfied he can defeat Edwards at 142 pounds, as Edwards was overweight the last time. Sneed asks for a return match at weight. If Edwards refuses, Sneed challenges any 138 to 142-pound man. Also will say that I would like to hear from Young Joe Gans and Kid Low.

DALLAS, TEXAS.

The Twenty-Second Anniversary of the Colored High School Held at Fair Park Coliseum Pleased All—Macedonia People a Set of Church Workers—The Boy Cadet—K. of P. Win Praise, Local Talent Being Cheered to the Echo—Grafters Should Get a Jolt Here—19th of June a Big Time Here.

The commencement exercises of the Dallas Colored High School were held in high esteem by a large number of interested citizens of the metropolis the past week and a host of interested pupils and teachers and the new school board. The class of 1914 was warmly received by their many friends and each were never better greeted by tokens, and in return crowned themselves with honor due. The program was very lengthy one but not tireing to the large audience of both races. It's the hope of one and all that each graduate will ever keep in mind the class motto—"We accept nothing but good."____The various schools of the city were busily engaged in issuing promotion cards and closing up their year's work and extending the pupils their best wishes, also the principals, teachers and others connected with the schools of Dallas.____Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Terrell, of Fort Worth, spent several days here and perfected all arrangements whereby Mrs. Terrell was successfully operated on at St. Paul's Sanitarium and is now on the road to recovery and will soon be at home.____Mada M. Bruton, the singer, is pleasing the people at Galveston. It pays to make good. Are you opening a gate to success for your people anywhere?____Mrs. Clara Buckley, of Hutchins, visited her sister, Mrs. M. Davis, 2808 Cochran street and returned home.____Mrs. W. E. Pruitt and others were in attendance at the District Mission convention this week at the Fort.____Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson, formerly of Dallas but now living in California, are here on a visit to their friends and relatives.____The following sick people are improving: Mrs. Gertrude McFarland and baby, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brewer, Mrs. Annie Lucus, and W. H. Patterson.____Mr. and Mrs. John Carter have moved into their new home in Queen City.____Mrs. C. Bird, of Marshall, was called here to the funeral of her niece the past week.____Nine Texas students, who attended Langston University, are at home, and speak in the highest for that school.____Mrs. Mattie Johnson, who has been spending several months here visiting from California, has returned to the Golden Gate country.____Your cleaning and repairing and pressing done by John Ryan as you like it.____Prof J. W. Towns, teacher of manual training in the high school, has made a record to be proud of. The pupils all like him.____The need of a feed store operated by negroes is badly felt here. Who will be the starter?____Lodges have had a busy time the past week and elections were the main part of the business.____Several interesting sermons were preached to our congregations last Sunday on "Railway equipment and treatment of the race who travel on them from time to time." It's up to the several hundred Negroes who have good jobs to stick to them these hard, dull times and pass up the excursions for the summer.____It's pay time for the Freeman. If you can't pay don't think of owing for it, because old credit is dead; bad pay killed him.____This city is overrun with the self-styled important negro—knowall, do nothing, that is sapping the life blood out of those who are doing something here and there.____Much of the local city talent is scoring a hit with the various audiences whenever they appear on any program. It would be a credit to some of the performers who play vaudeville dates here and there to strive to better themselves by associations and cut out the canning theme. Be strict business to one and all.____Oh, my, but isn't the Frazier Hotel one of the nicest places in the country to stop at? They have every convenience for your pleasure, at 2302 Griffin street.____The grafters in Dallas have the able assistance of the good people, but not the wise ones all the time. When will some people wake up in the metropolis and put them out of business? They are the ruination of lodges and other things. Here the faker hasn't got a look-in, see. Do you get it, Steve? ____ A large delegation of Dallas Courts of Calantha, K. of P. Uniform Rank and musicians were the guests in the Island city the past week and they were it wherever they went.
